“Wellbeing; the key to resilience and academic success”

Have more skills and confidence to manage your own resilience and wellbeing at work, and manage that of your students.

Fun, challenging and inter-active session sharing the top tips of wellbeing and resilience that impact personal aspirations and academic attainment in schools.

Hannah Kennedy-Jackson - “The Parent Away From Home”

Hannah shares her compelling story with educational staff, students, youth groups and the general community at public events. Her ability to interact and communicate with her audiences on a personal level is guaranteed to leave you empowered with resilience, inspired and equipped with a positive attitude towards challenges and change. You will laugh, you will cry tears of sadness and tears of joy, you will have an experience listening to Hannah's remarkable story which will stick with you for years to come. You will be challenged to answer one very important question as Hannah's story unfolds... "What choice do you make when the wrong action is the right decision?"

Stephanie Davies - “Delivering interventions using happiness, humour and laughter”

Stephanie has gained an unsurpassed reputation for designing and delivering interventions in various settings and is the founder and CEO of Laughology. She is recognised as one of the UK's leading voices in happiness, humour and laughter and has worked developing everything from creating happy spaces and environments in schools and health settings to motivating and inspiring individuals and teams in large blue chip organisations. Her unique approach of laughology, together with the combination of being an award winning comedian with an expertise in psychology and business, make her a sought after speaker in education.
