

External Detection

Receive a push notification to alert you to activity outside your property. This can be an early warning indicator or full alarm activation at night if preferred.

With crime rates on the rise, adding external detection to your property can notify you of an intruder before they gain access and also prevent the theft of:

- Vehicles
- Deliveries left outside
- Tools from work vans
- Diesel